Raising Professional Standards in Lands Management

About Us

NALMA is a dynamic organization committed to providing efficient tools, training, and resources to its members within the Regional Lands Associations and other stakeholders.

Mission

National Organization of First Nation Lands Managers which will actively network towards the enhancement of professional development and technical expertise in the functions of Lands Management and which will also incorporate First Nations values and beliefs in Lands Management always keeping in mind the grass-root practices when dealing with Lands Management.

Values

As stewards of the land we are committed to empowering land managers to the highest standards of ethics and professionalism. We are responsible for the sustainable management of our ancestral lands for future generations.

Regional Lands Associations

NALMA membership is made up of the Regional Lands Association and such other eligible persons or Associations as admitted by resolution of the Board. The Regional Lands Associations are independent regional or territorial associations established by Land Managers, and recognized by NALMA. Directors for each RLA make up the Corporate body of NALMA. This model allows Regional perspectives to be discussed at a National level.

- Atlantic Region Aboriginal Lands Association (ARALA)
- British Columbia Aboriginal Land Managers (BCALM)
- First Nation Lands Managers Association for Quebec and Labrador (FNLMAQL)

- Ontario Aboriginal Lands Association (OALA)
- Planning and Land Administrators of Nunavut (PLAN)
- Saskatchewan Aboriginal Land Technicians (SALT)
- Treaty and Aboriginal Land Stewards Association of Alberta (TALSAA)
- Manitoba USKE (USKE)

Membership

First Nations belonging to their respective Regional Lands Association are automatically members of NALMA.

Our Member Services

Networking

NALMA provides a channel for successfully networking through open lines of communication, knowledge sharing, and the establishment of partnerships and strategic alliances across Canada.

Training and Professional Development

NALMA provides training and capacity building for First Nation Lands Managers to attend various training programs.

Technical Expertise

NALMA is able to provide technical expertise in the area of land management to both First Nation Lands Managers, First Nation organizations and government agencies. NALMA hosts an impressive collection of resources within the member access, Resource Library.

Referrals

For First Nations Lands Managers requiring assistance on day to day land issues or general inquiries, NALMA will refer them to the Regional Lands Associations, individual First Nation Lands Managers or government and professional agencies, depending on the nature of the inquiry.
